THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE

6ix months, 75 cents. No subscription for a period received.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT. MONEY sent us, otherwise than by registered letter, postal money order, or draft on New York, will be at the risk of the sender. AGENTS.—We employ no agents. THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE has many volunteer canvassers, and they are generally honest and faithful; but persons who confide their subscriptions to them must be their own judges of their responsibility. The paper will be sent only on receipt of the subscription price. ADDRESSES, RENEWALS, ETC .- Addresses will be changed as often as desired, but each subscriber should in every case give the old as well as new address. In renewing subscribers should be careful to send us the label on the last paper received, and specify any corrections or changes they desire made in name or address. CORRESPONDENCE. - Correspondence is solicited from every section in regard to Grand Army, Sons of Veterans, Pension, Military, Agricultural, Industrial and Household matters, and letters to the Editor will always receive prompt attention. Write on one side of the paper only. We do not return communication or manuscripts unless they are accompanied by a request to that effect and the necessary postage, and under no circumstances guarantee their publication at any special date. Address all communications to

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE. Washington, D. C.

ENTERED AT THE WASHINGTON POST OFFICE AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER,

NATIONAL TRIBUNE

WALHINGTON, D. C., JUNE 7, 1894.

MEXICAN PENSION ROLL One Which is Not "Purged," and in Which

There Are No Suspensions. On the Mexican Pension Roll there are the names of 15,215 survivors and 7,282 widows, and something over 3,000 cases were pending at latest reports. This makes a total of 25,497, or several thousand more men than the United States had in Mexico at any one time during the war. These all receive either $8 or $12 a month. Among the names are those of the widow of Gen. Samuel Cooper, a New Yorker by birth, who was Adjutant-General of the United States Army at the outbreak of the war, and used his position to aid the rebels in preparing for the struggle. He resigned his position to become Adjutant-General of the Southern Confederacy, and officiated as such until the rebellion col-6, 1887.

The widow of Thomas J. ("Stonewall") Jackson, who was next to Lee the most popular commander of the rebel

The widow of Maj.-Gen. George E. Pickett, who commanded a division in the rebel army.

The widow of Maj.-Gen. Gideon vision in the rebel army.

The widow of Lieut.-Gen. A. P. Hill, who commanded one of the three corps of Lee's army. the Navy for "going over to the enemy," and afterward became a Commodore in the rebel navy.

tenant. Maj.-Gen. Dabney H. Maury. who commanded the rebel troops at the battle of Chickasaw Bayou.

States Senator from Texas, who since May 27, 1887. He was a Major-General in the rebel Briny.

Hon. Jas. Z. George, Senator from Mississippi, and who served in the rebel army as Colonel. The number of his certificate is 17,214.

Hon. A. H. Colquitt, Senator draws a pension under certificate 19,199, are of men who were educated at the Government expense, and afterward fought to destroy the people, but when it became evident that Government. They went on the the Union was to exist in name only; men who "over-ran us" gave "us" a roll at once, while last April there were pending the claims diers who had not yet been able to get on the roll.

Please se	MENT, Washing and me by Forbes's "Al	ton, D. C. return mail MYSKETCH close 10 cents.
Name
Town		.,
County		·,
State

AN EXTRA COPY.

Some comrades may receive an extra copy of this week's NATIONAL TRIBUNE, which they are requested to hand to some other comrade who, they know, is not a subscriber, but should be. Every man who wore the blue should be on the subscription-list of THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE during this great fight for veterans' rights. Try to bring all the boys into camp. The more subscribers THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE has, the better fight it can make.

A "DEVIL'S ADVOCATE."

In the bitter days of his sour old age, when he was envenomed by seeing the land rise happy and prosperous from the ruin he had wrought, and his name and memory become more and more of by-way word and a reproach, Jeff Davis used to console himself by saying that at least the women and the preachers were not conquered, and would not be "re constructed." No matter how convincing the logic of events might be to others, they at least would remain morose, recalcitrant, unforgiving, and

We have had a sorrowful illustration of how well the arch-traitor knew those of whom he spoke. Last week there was a grand gala day and public demonstration in Richmond, Va. The stores were the first favorable opportunity to undo closed, business suspended, buildings the work done by four years of bloody decorated, a great assemblage of noted and leading men, and tens of thousands | ble lives, and overthrow a settlement flocked into the city from all parts of which it has been fondly hoped was for Virginia and the South. The occasion all time. was the unvailing, on the former site of Libby Prison, of a fine monument to far not a man has risen in the South to Cave, of whom we know nothing, except | tested against this being a representative that the prefix to his name indicates his voice of the South, and the speech has sacred calling. But his bitter, vengeful, gone unchallenged to the world as the hate-breeding speech, which was ap- highest expression of the feelings of oneplauded to the echo by the assembled third of the country. multitue, startled the public like a bomb of an anarchist in some thronged public strous fulmination must be to put an place, and has brought him at once to end to all thought of holding the Na the front of National attention.

meek follower of the Prince of Peacestanding in the front of such an audience-standing in the center of horizon whose rim at every point ments. touched thousands of graves of men slain in an utterly senseless and unnecessary war-speaking such hate-inflaming structed rebels can be gotten together the old superstition that the will of heaven is revealed in the immediate results of "trial them, and "improve the occasion" by by combat," fancy that right must always be on the side of might, and speak of Appothat a Sawaroff triumphed and a Kosciusko fell; that a Nero wielded the scepter of an empire and a Paul was beheaded; that | Semmes, D. H. Hill, and Jubal Early a Herod was crowned and that a Christ was lapsed. Mrs. Cooper has been crucified and instead of accepting the defeat of pass away their measures of gall and drawing a pension since June | the South as a divine verdict against her, I regard it as but another instance of "truth on the scaffold and wrong on the throne." [Tremendous applause.

Appointtox was a triumph of the physically stronger in a conflict between the representatives of two essentially different civilizations and antagonistic ideas of Governments. On one side in that conflict was the South led by the descendants of the Cavaliers, who, with all their faults, had inherited from a long line of ancestors a manly contempt for moral littleness, a high sense J. Pillow, who commanded a di- of honor, a lofty regard for plighted faith, a strong tendency to conservatism, a profound respect for law and order, and an unfaltering loyalty to constitutional Governments.

Against the South was arrayed the power of the North, dominated by the spirit of we love our God. The widow of Sidney Smith Puritanism which, with all its virtues, has Lee, who was dismissed from ever been characterized by the Pharisaism that worships itself and is unable to perceive any goodness apart from itself, and from the time of Oliver Cromwell to the time of Abraham Lincoln, has never hesi-Brig.-Gen. Jas. R. Chalmers, tated to trample upon the rights of others who was Forrest's chief lieu- in order to effect its own ends.

At Appomattex Puritanism, backed by overwhelming numbers and unlimited resettle questions of right and wrong. Thinkby the measure of its success; and I believe | sions. Hon. S. B. Maxey, late United | the world shall yet decide, in truth's clear, far-off light, that the South was in the has been drawing his pension right; that the cause was just; that the men who took up arms in her defense were patriots who had even better reason for what were the "great principles for what they did than had the men who fought at Concord, Lexington, and Bunker Hill; and that her coercion, whatever good may have resulted or may hereafter result from

The speaker insisted that those who served under the banner of the Confedfrom Georgia, who was a Major- eracy were not rebels, fighting against General in the rebel army, lawful authority and seeking to destroy ner-stone of which was human slavery. the Union founded by our fathers of It is amazing that a man should have The widows above mentioned | American independence. That Union | his heart so set on these things, as to be was dear to the hearts of the Southern utterly broken when denied them. of 145,520 widows of Union sol- overthrown and trampled in the dust, collectively, but also Thomas L. Rosser | coming National Encampment. These then did the South stand up and insist upon her rights, acting not as a passionswept mob in mad rebellion against con- of the Valley," and commanded a body bine with the erdinary G.A.R. card a and orderly people, acting in accordance with due forms of law and within the constitutional rights.

eagerly drunk in by tens of thousands of young minds now learning the lessons of their duty as citizens; to say that they noted with glowing eyes and beating pulses the vehement applause which greeted these inflammatory utterances: to say that millions more of similar young minds, in every part of the South. would hear them read over and extolled. is to say the most utterly alarming thing possible. The wild harangues of Socialists and Anarchists excite only a passing fear. To their violence and phantasms can safely be opposed the sturdy com-

of freedom and self-government. But what can save us from the danger | pensions, and if he had been at Bir- finitely cheaper.

mon sense of the great Anglo-Saxon race, nurtured and developed by centuries

preach perpetual war between the people | mond. He concluded: of the South and the rest of the country? Who say boldly that Appomattox was martyrs to a sacred cause? Who preach to the rising generation that the people | South and pull down our monuments. of the United States are the coarse, sordid, criminal conquerors and oppressors of the nobler race of the South, and that resistance to them was and is obedience to God?

What can this mean but the direst menace to the future peace and prosperity of the country? It is the incitement to the youth of the South to take war and the sacrifice of a million valua-

The most alarming feature is, that so "the Confederate Private Soldier." The disayow and rebuke this incendiarism. orator of the occasion was Rev. R. C. Not a single Southern paper has pro-

One of the first effects of this montional Encampment of the Grand Army Think of a clergyman—a presumably of the Republic at Atlanta. The veterans of the Union would feel like enemies in a hostile land among people entertaining and applauding such senti-

THE INEVITABLE ROSSER.

Whenever a gathering of unreconin the name of the Lost Cause, Gen. I am not one of those who, clinging to Thos. L. Rosser is sure to be among utterances so incendiary as to be mattex as a judgment of God. I do not forget | criminal. As such other rebel scolds Jeff Davis, Yancev, Toombs, bitterness appear to be handed over to Rosser, and be concentrated in him. The Confederate Cavalry held its Reunion in Richmond, May 31, and Rosser was the principal speaker. Among and will be re-elected by a greatly-inother things he said :

Comrades, when you marched out in '61 you were broved by the hope of the future. Now you have only the memory of the past. The great principles for which we fought have been dishenored, but they are not dead. But we are here to-day to do honor to the men who fell, for we love their memory as

The men who over-ran us remind me of the locusts which are now infesting portions of the State. They could not whip us, but they devoured our substance. The army that devoured us was an army of substitutes. We killed all the substitutes, and the men whom they represented stayed at home and made money, and now draw pensions. I despise the man who gives United States money to a pensioner. This country can't another. I shall never vote for a Congressing men do not judge the merits of a cause | man who is in favor of Government pen-

I will say to Massachusetts, you pay your pensioners as Virginia pays hers.

Gen. Rosser was careful not to specify which we fought." It used to be stated concretely as the "privilege of a man's it, was an outrage on liberty. [Applause.] walloping his own niggers. A. Stephens, the Vice-President of the so-called Southern Confederacy, said that it was the intention to erect a new nationality, the cor-

It is our distinct impression that the stituted authority, but as an intelligent of men he called the "Laurel Brigade." One day a party of Union rough-riders, under the command of Torbert, Custer, limits of what they believed to be their Merritt, and others, went out and had a little pienic with Rosser and his "Laurel To say that every word of this was Brigade." When the performance closed the "Savior of the Valley" a little while afterward, old Jubal Early piped out:

"Rosser, you ought to have the name of your brigade changed to the Grapevine. The laurel isn't a runner."

his Northern colleagues. They say the substitutes are all on the pension-roll. He says "we killed them all." "The excellent material to have hustled Rosser remarkably fast time.

the G.A.R. was banded together to get good as a photograph, and they are in-from such reverend apostles of the cru- mingham he would have voted against sade of Sectional Hatred, who make a the proposition to invite them to attend. Holy Sepulcher of the Lost Cause and He did not want them to come to Rich-

Some time ago we unvailed a monument to the greatest General who ever lived; today we unvail a monument to the greatest another Calvary, and that the men who private soldier who ever lived; and, in time, we will unvail a monument to the Presifell in trying to destroy the country were dent of the Confederate States. But we are mocked at the North, and will live to see the Yankee army march again through the I don't know what sort of stuff the rising generation is made of, but, if you and I are

> This sort of stuff must be pleasant reading to those who are trying to get the National Encampment to meet at

PRESIDENT McBride, of the Coal Miners' Union, has shown himself an American and a true citizen. He has facts. severely rebuked those who seize trains and destroy property, and reminds them that this is the surest way to make the strike a failure. This is the right doctrine. Men have a perfect and inalienable right to refuse to work when the terms do not suit them. They have the same right to peacefully persuade others to join with them. No one can question this. But any form of violence to per sons or property is abhorrent to Ameri can ideas of justice and right, and should be severely punished.

ENLOE has shown that he knows as upon. little about Civil Service as about pensions. He recently said on the floor of the House that nearly all the employes of the Civil Service Commission are Republicans. The Commissioners at once made a canvass of the politics of their clerks, and found that 12 of them are Democrats, 16 Republicans, 2 Indepe dents, 3 Prohibitionists, and 1 Populist, This is a larger proportion of Republicans than we expected to find. It generally seems to the casual on-looker in Washington that there are more Democrats than anything else in the public service. At one time during Harrison's Administration it was asserted that 85 per cent. of the salaries paid in the District of Columbia went to Democrats.

THE people of the Eleventh Ohio Congressional District know a good thing when they have it, and hold on to it Gen. Charles H. Grosvenor has been renominated for Congress by acclamation, creased majority. This is good news to the whole country, as Gen. Grosvenor is one of the most valuable mea in the House of Representatives, and no one is We are now only an ambulance corps. a stronger and more active friend of the

THE main issue in the Georgia Gubernatorial campaign seems to be whether a man shall be nominated solely on the strength of his record in the rebel army, or his competitor, who was too young to go into the rebel army, but avows sources, prevailed. But brute force cannot stand when it makes one citizen support principles identical with those who did go. The younger man is preferable in many respects, but the strong objection to him is that he did not actually serve in the rebel army. Yet Atlanta assumes to want the G.A.R. National Encampment to meet there.

SENATOR GORMAN says that he is as much opposed to the income tax as Senators Hill and Smith, but will vote for it as "an emergency tax." But why should there have been any "emergency"? The Tariff Deformers created it to make an excuse for the income tax.

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE PORTRAIT

Now is the time to think about get ting some of those handsome NATIONAL when its essential principles had been most terrific thrashing-not merely "us," TRIBUNE Portrait Cards in time for the himself. It will be remembered that are by far the best things yet offered Rosser then styled himself the "Savior | the comrades in that line, as they comfine, artistic portrait of the owner, which makes the pleasantest sort of a souvenir to his comrades and friends. We have now reduced the price of these cards to suit the times, and will send 100 of them, with THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE it would have taken a pack of hounds to for one year, for $2,50. Without the find Rosser and his command. Meeting paper, the price will be $2.25. This is much cheaper than as good cards can be gotten anywhere. The ordinary price for cards without a portrait is $2 per 100, and such a picture as we make for it would cost anywhere $2.50 or $3. The General differs remarkably from Or, we will send 100 of the cards for a club of 12 yearly subscribers to THE NA-TIONAL TRIBUNE, or 20 for The American Farmer. Order at once, that you may substitutes" must have been made of have the cards to distribute among your friends. They will be much better reand his men out of the Valley in such minders than photographs, as they will contain the names and military history Gen. Rosser then went on to say that etc., of the giver; the picture is just as

SENATOR HILL continues to develop speech in regard to the Sugar Trust sound, and meets the approval of the ment. country. It is nonsensical to hunt down the newspaper correspondents. They they got their information. If the Senate is in earnest about investigating the scandal it can get all the information living, there will be bloodshed when that is required as easily as the correspondents got their's. The suspected Senators are well known, and the alleged agents of the trust equally within the general knowledge. Let the Senate go at the work as a Prosecuting Attorney or a Grand Jury would, and it will have little real trouble in getting at all the

> A BILL introduced by Representative Meyer, of Louisiana, looks to a desirable reform in the Navy by increasing the incentive to young men to enter that service. It provides for a system of training by which a naval apprentice can attain to a commission by the time he reaches the age of 26. In both the Army and the Navy there should be such a system as will place a commission as easily within reach of every young man, as a similar reward would be in any other line of life that he might enter

MR. ROBERT M. JOHNSON, an Alderman of Brooklyn, is agitating the repeal of the legal preference given in New York to yeterans in seeking public employment. This is another would-be contract breaker. Such preference was distinctly promised by the people of every loyal State to the men who enlisted. It is a preference which works hardship to no one, except born politicians, who want to fill public places fused to accept payment except in gold, and, services. The preference given veterans is not only an honest fulfillment of binding promises, but it is an eminently proper thing to do as a stimulus to pat-

Pension Bureau issued 1,559 certificates, of which 223, or about one-seventh the entire number, were for original claims arising under the old laws, and 456, or over one-fourth, were under the act of June 27. The total number or original certificates issued was 815, of about one for every six of the 5,000 employees of the Bureau.

OUR old adversary, Gen. Chalmers, of Fort Pillow massacre fame, bobs up into public notice as a Populist candidate for Congress.

THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS ENCAMP-

The National Encampment of the Kinghts of Pythias will be held in Washington the last of August. The attendance promises to be very large, and among the visitors will be many readers of THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE. We will be glad to help any of those who desire to attend, by furnishing them first-class round-trip tickets in return for clubs for either American Farmer. Let every one who pired. desires to secure his transportation go to work at once soliciting subscribers, and write to us for sample copies and terms.

THE FORBES PICTURES.

Whoever has failed to improve the opportunity to get the Forbes War Pictures will regret it when he sees them in the hands of some of his comrades. They are absolutely the most truthful and lifelike of any pictures drawn of the recall just how he and his comrade appeared in the "days when he went soldiering." There is time vet to get the set from the beginning. Send in your coupons and orders.

We take pleasure in giving a few extracts from the many complimentary

The books are very interesting indeed, and bring to mind very distinctly the times when we were "soldier boys."
S. H. WENTWORTH, Albany, N. Y. I am very much pleased with Part I, because A. J. HOLMES, Boone, Iowa,

I don't want to miss a number. GEORGE H. BRYAN, Bridgeport, Conn.

I am trying to interest old veteran comrades, and induce them to get this grand history of our work now offered so generously. All are getting B. G. BARTO, Lansingburg, N. Y. They are grand, and the very thing for us ex-oldiers. O. J. Lyon, Sabetha, Kan. I have read the Army Sketch Book, No. 2, with great interest. It reminds me of true army life, just as it was when I was in the army. It is very amusing to any old soldier. I want every number of the Sketch Book.

E. H. Dugan, Auroraville, Wis.

The Army Life Sketch Book is just the thing to put any one who was in the war of the rebellion, from '61 to '65, in mind of old times, and I would not be without it for twice the price which you charge for it. It ought to be in every family.

JOHN R. SWEET, Apponaug, R. I.

No. 1 of War Pictures came early, and I have enjoyed it. The reading is very also and important; evidently written by one who saw what he describes so naturally.

R. G. Babro, Lansingburg, N. Y.

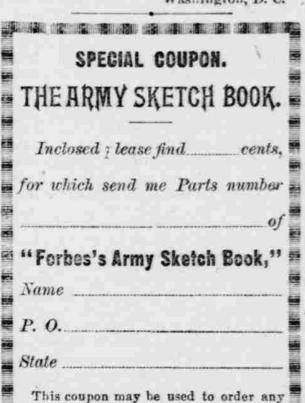

O, for just one hour of the vigorous striking common-sense qualities. His Americanism of "Bill" Marcy, "Dan" Webster, or "Jim" Blaine in the nervescandal investigation was eminently less, blundering, truckling State Depart-

> THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE AND TEXAS SIFTINGS' LIBRARY.

TEXAS SIFTINGS' LIBRARY costs $1 will not tell and should not tell where year. So does THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE. We have made an arrangement by which we can send the six back numbers of the Texas Sif ings' Library, covering the series from Jan. 1 to June, inclusive, at once, and the issues for the balance of the year as they come out, at a very low price, in conboth publications can be had, IF ORDERED TOGETHER, for a year, for only $1.50. Send at once, as the number of sets of the Library back to Jan. 1 is limited. The Texas Siftings, if ordered alone, wil

Address THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE, Washington, D. C.

PERSONAL.

of the parts from 1 to 9, or the first 9

parts will be sent upon receipt of 90 cents

Miss Irwin, the great granddaughter of Benjamin Franklin, has gone to Boston from Philadelphia to preside over the Harvard Annex. Her renowned ancestor moved the other wayfrom Beston to Philadelphia.

Long years ago, it is said, Jacob De Hvaen, a wealthy tanner of Germantown, Pa., made a loan to the Government of $450,000 to relieve paign of the Carolinas, and the Grand Review the distress of the American soldiers at Valley Forge. The story goes that he afterward rewith men as a reward for political not receiving it, he died of a broken heart in 1783. Now his beirs from five States will open up negotiations with his Philadelphia heirs, and will file a claim for the loan and interest, running up into the millions. Gov. McKinley and Gen. Gibson addressed

20,000 people near Fort Seneca, O., last week at the G.A.R. services. When the Governor arrived in Tiffin he was entertained at the home of Gen. Gibson. The party were driven across For the week ending May 26 the the country to Fort Senaca, which stands on the site of a blockhouse which sheltered 6,000 troops during the war of 1812. The Governor assumed country customs, and made his toilet on the back porch, washing from a shiny tinpan made from genuine American tin. At Pleasant Union Cemetery, in which 17 soldiers are buried, Memorial services were held, and the crowd was the largest ever gathered in Seneca County. In his speech, while alluding to the prominent part Ohio had taken in the late war, the Governor remarked that an American could not show his patriotism in time of war by proxy, and in eulogizing the American flag said that he was opposed to the flag being pulled down anywhere, even in Canada or the Hawaiian Islands. Gov. Mc-Kiuley also aided Cincinnati in celebrating Memorial Day, and delivered an oration at the Music Hall under the auspices of Troyes Post,

Ex-Public Printer F. W. Palmer has received at his home, in Syracuse, N. Y., a beautiful testimonial from the 2,200 employes of the Government Printing Office in Washington. The gift is a valuable gold watch of Geneva manufacture, set with 32 rubies, and a goldmounted ebony cane.

Thomas Allen, of Flemington, W. Va., is 104 years old, and can reasonably claim to be the oldest veteran of the civil war. He is a member of Grafton Post, G.A.R., and took part in the procession at Grafton on May 30.

Gen. Charles Anderson, of Greenville, O., ex-Representative in Congress, will be recommended as member of the Board of Managers of the National Soldiers' Home to succeed THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE or The Gen. Barnett, of Cleveland, whose term has ex-

Mrs. U. S. Grant is now in New York. She speaks of her pleasant Western trip with enthusiasm. It is said that she loves to dwell on the past and the achievements of her husband. "The great Captains of the war died all too soon," she said; "Gen. Sheridan, Gen. Sherman -every one of them. They are all gone, and, excepting Gen. Sherman, perhaps, none of them could be considered old." Capt. J. G. B. Adams, Commander-in-Chief

G.A.R., was invited to address the pupils of the higher-grade schools of Chelsea on May 28. Capt. Adams gave a vivid account of his four years' experience in the war. He related the story of his capture and his experience in Libby Prison, prisons at Macon, Ga., and Morris war. Every man looking at them will Island, and an account of his escape and recapture. In closing, he urged the young people never to forget the boys in blue. He wanted the boys of to-day to remember the veteran, and in his declining years not to let him suffer, and not to forget that the highest duty of an American citizen was love and devotion to his country and the old flag. Some newspapers have accused George Washington of neglecting his mother's grave by not | ed member of John C. Fremont Post, 590. marking it with a stone. This is contradicted by Mrs. Lee, the wife of Admiral Samuel P. Lee, retired, and the daughter of Francis P. June 27, 1890; was suspended one year ago, and Blair. She has often told of visiting the grave had not been restored. He leaves a widow and of Mary Washington in 1830 and seeing a small | two children. headstone, of the kind then universally used. It had been broken off at about 10 inches or a foot in hight, and had evidently been a much larger stone. At any rate, there is no good reason to believe that the immortal Washington allowed the grave of his mother to lie unmarked. The monument to Gen. Robert McAllister at Belvidere, N. J., was unvailed on May 30 with appropriate services, and speeches reviewing his brilliant war record. A bust of the Polish patriot Kosciusko was also unvailed at Perth Amboy, N. J. As the cloth was pulled from the memorial, a salute was fired by a detachment of Battery I. Polish Artillery, of Newark, N. J. A statue of Gen. McNeill was unvailed at St. Louis, and at Albany, N. Y., a monument was dedicated to Col. Addison Farnsworth, who commanded the 79th N. Y., and was fatally wounded at the second Bull Run.

We have received a photograph of the U.S. Monitor in miniature constructed by Comrade A. J. Hartle, 8th and 44th Ohio, Miami County, O. The model is 21 inches in length; across the center nine inches; hight, four and onehalf inches, one inch above the water line, about 14 years old.

Turret (in center) diameter, five inches; hight, two and three-fourths inches; the base, a band of metal one and one-fourth inches in width; wood, one and one-half inches. Pilot house, length, three inches; hight, one and three-fourth inches. In its construction there are 519 pieces of woods secured from every State in the Union save five; also, from foreign countries. The pilothouse is constructed entirely of foreign woods. consisting of 38 pieces. The turret and the circle space above the metal band contains 47 pieces from the different States of the Union, and the outer space on upper circle 39 pieces from Ohio, all different woods, and the center of circle 12 pieces from foreign countries. The piece from Washington, D. C., was secured nection with a yearly subscription to THE | through the kindness of Congressman Williams. NATIONAL TRIBUNE. By this arrangement It is a piece of the U. S. frigate sunk at York town, Va., 1776, and raised in 1876. The native woods have been listed with a record of the name of wood, State and County, and the name and postoffice address of the donor. The foreign woods were secured through the kindness of S. Morningstar, Clark County, O.; C. B. Fletcher, Miami County, O., and Rev. J. L. Goodnight, Covington, O., and many comrades all over the country kindly sent wood from their several States. Unfortunately the monitor was not finished in time to place at the Columbian Exposition, but Comrade Hartle hopes to have it ready for the next Ohio State Fair, and he will then receive many congratulations for his genius and skill in constructing the beautiful little model.

Judge Chas. D. Long, of the Michigan Supreme Court, delivered a beautiful address at Cairo, Ill., May 30. His audience numbered thousands. Soldiers and the friends of soldiers from far and near gathered to hear him, because of his bold and brave arraignment of the present pension legislation.

MUSTERED OUT.

eterans of the Country's Grandest Army Who Have Answered the Last Call.

BURL.-At Nevinville, Iowa, May 4, Daniel M. Buel, 12th Ill. Cav., aged 51. Comrade Buel was in the service almost three years, Comrade Buel was an active and useful member of Jewett Post, and will be greatly missed by his comrades. He leaves a widow and an DAVISON .- At Scottville, Kan., April 6, of disease contracted while in the service, A. W. Davison, Co. D, 102d Ill., aged 52. Comrade Davison enlisted Aug. 2, 1862, in President Lincoln's immortal "Six Hundred Thousand More." About the 1st of October the regiment was ordered to the front, and formed part of the brigade commanded by Gen. Harrison, Its first hard service was on the Atlanta campaign, where in its daily battles and skirmishes 'Davy," as the boys called him, showed great bravery on many occasions, march with Sherman to the sea and the cam-at Washington, D. C., May 24, 1865. He was buried with military honors by the G.A.R. SUTHERLAND .- At Austin, Minn., May 9 Walter F. Sutherland, aged 49. The war broke out before he was 17, and he enlisted in the Regular Army, in Co. B, Battalion of Engineer Corps, organized in Portland, Me., and served until Feb. 8, 1864; re-onlisted and was not discharged until Feb. 8, 1867. He was a member of McIntyre Post. A widow and three children survive him. TINKHAM .- At Freetown, Mass., May 12, H. E. Tinkham, U. S. Navy. Among the important engagements in which he took part were the siege and capture of New Orleans, Vicksburg, Port Hudson, Wilmington and Mebile. At Mobile he received severe wounds, from which he never fully recovered. He served in the Navy over five years, when he received an honorable discharge and retired to his home in Assonet. He leaves a widow. SHAUB .- At Glendive, Mont., May 6, of consumption, John S. Shaub, Co. E, 191st Ohio. He was at the time of his death Commander of

T. L. Kane Post, 12. McCLOY .- At New Lexington, O., May 25, David E. McCloy, Co. I, 114th O., aged 54. CORNAHAN .- At Long Island, Kan., May 23, Wm. W. Cornahan, Co. A. 41st Ohio, aged 71. He leaves two sons and one daughter. SMITH.-At Elizabethtown, N. Y., March 6, of disease of the stomach, Lyman Smith, Co. E 11th N. Y. Cav., aged 65. He was a member of TRACY .- At Lodi, Cal., May 1, of hemorrhage of wound received in the service, Thomas F.

Tracy, U. S. Navy. Comrade Tracy served six years in the Navy on the Tuscarora, Uncas, John Adams, Chœma, and Hartford. He was buried by Hartford Post, 155. PAGE.-At South Edmeston, N. Y., May 28, F. F. Page, Co. K, 161st N. Y. The comrade enlisted Aug. 30, 1862, and served his full term of three years. He was a member of the G.A.R. DIFFENDERFER .- At Allensville, Pa., April 17. Capt. Samuel Diffenderfer, Co. I, 149th Pa. The comrade enlisted Sept. 26, 1862, and served as Orderly-Sergeant until the battle of Gettysburg, where he was severely wounded. He was commissioned Captain, and was discharged May 3, 1864. Post 292, Mount Union, attended his funeral. A widow and seven children survive EGGLESTON.-At Marcellus Falls, N. Y., May

Chas. G. Eggleston, aged 51. CARTER.-At Woodbury, N. J., May 24, William R. Carter, Co. A, 12th N. J., aged 52. At the time of his death Comrade Carter was Senior Vice Commander of Gen. Howell Post. 31. The comrades of the Post attended the funeral in a body. DAVIS .- At Worcester, Mass., May 22, Win-was a member of Geo. H. Ward Post, 10, and was buried at Orange, Mass. He leaves a widow and one married daughter. PROUTY .- At Worcester, Mass., May 25, of heart disease, E. W. Prouty, Co. F, 13th Mass., aged 58 years. He was a member of Geo. H. Ward Post, 10. He was buried at East Brookfield, Mass. He leaves a sen 13 years of age, throp Davis, Co. C, 51st Mass., aged 55. He

22, of disease contracted while in the service.

his wife having died five years ago. WORTMAN-At Long Branch, N. J., May 27, of paralysis, D. H. Wortman, Co. A. 30th N. J., aged 57. He was a member of Morris Post, 46. DAVIS .- At Boston, Mass., April 25, Charles S. Davis, Co. D, 32d Mass., aged 48. He was severely wounded in the elbow, the arm partially stiffened, and was the cause of much later suffering. Although death was from pneumonia, there is no doubt that his constitution was shocked and weakened by his wound. In fact he never saw a well day afterward. Ha leaves a widow and four children in indigent

LAWRENCE.-At Yonkers, N. Y., May 25, John H. Lawrence, 6th N. Y. H. A., aged 70, He served with the regiment a year, when he volunteered to serve with Battery M. 1st U. S. L. A. He saw fighting at the Wilderness, Spottsylvania, Petersburg, and Cedar Creek. After the surrender of Lee he was returned to his regiment, and mustered out Aug. 24, 1865. Comrade Lawrence was a respected and honor-BARKER .- At Smithville Flats, N. Y., May

16, Adolphus Barker, Co. K. 157th N. Y., aged 66. He had been a pensioner under the law of COULTER. - At Parsons, Kan., May 4, Samuel

L. Coulter, 64th Ohio, aged 57. Comrade Coulter was one of the pioneers of Neosho County, and a man who enjoyed to a marked degree the confidence and esteem of the old settlers of the early days, and his friends and acquaintances in general. He located at Erie, Kan., in 1867, where he resided the greater part of the time until 1872, when he moved to Parsons. He was Probate Judge of the County, and discharged the duties of the office with ability and integrity. Judge Coulter was a gallant soldier, and his record as such is one of which any veteran might well be proud. He was mustered into the service on Oct. 1, 1861, as First Lieutenant, Co. E, 64th Ohio; was promoted to Captain Dec. 1, 1861; to Major March 11, 1863; to Lieutenant-Colonel June 27, 1864, and was mustered out by reason of expiration of term of service Feb. 16, 1865. He served in the Army of the Cumberland, and participated in all the campaigns and important battles of that famous army from the time his regiment took the field until the close of his term of service. He acted as Assistant Adjutant-General on the staff of Gen. C. G. Harker for about 18 months. and was present on the field serving in that capacity when Gen. Harker was killed at the battle of Kenesaw Mountain, June 27, 1864. His wife died some years ago, and the only immediate relative he left surviving him is a soa,